

Position Title:	Analyst – Airline & Airport Services
Experience:	One to three years
Status:	Full Time Employee
Job Location:	Arlington, Virginia
Business Hours:	9:00-5:30 M-F
Start Date:	Immediately
Salary:	Commensurate with Experience
Travel:	0% - 5%

Responsibilities

The position is within the Airline & Airport Services group, with the following responsibilities:

- Support intangible asset valuations, including valuations of businesses, intellectual property, loyalty programs, routes, and slots
- Perform aviation market analysis and demand forecasting; economic analysis for new routes; strategy, business planning and management organization review; privatization and transaction advisory
- Assist in airport financial consulting initiatives, including airline rates and charges development, Passenger Facility Charge (PFC) application, lease negotiations, and feasibility and bond consulting.
- Assist in developing and maintaining Excel based advanced valuation and economic models
- Maintain expertise on airline industry data, including traffic and revenue, and leakage
- Support proposal preparation and identifying Request for Proposals
- Prepare presentations and draft reports detailing analyses and findings
- Understand various data sources, procure data, perform research and conduct other project related analysis

Qualifications

Required:

- Undergraduate degree in accounting, finance, business, aviation, or other related degree.
- Strong comprehension of finance fundamentals
- Advanced Excel financial modelling skills
- Authorization to work in the United States (Employment Eligibility Verification (I-9) Form)

Preferred:

- Other experience within the aviation industry or transportation finance
- Understanding of the business dynamics of airlines and airports
- Experience with programming languages